Camp Cedar Falls is a Christian camp owned and operated by the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. It is situated 6,000 feet up in the San Bernardino Mountains among mighty cedar, pine, oak, and spruce trees.

The camp program will provide a balance of physical, mental, social and spiritual activities. All of these activities will be highly instructional in content with proper supervision. Each year we staff the camp with vibrant committed Christians. All staff are screened professionally through the National Data Bank.
